OTEGO CENTRAL SCHOOL

By the maple trees surrounded
And a lawn that's always green
Stands our dear Otego High School
Place of many a pleasant scene.
With the hills and trees behind it
'Mong the buildings of the town
Is it not a pretty picture of the
Orange and the Brown

When at first we entered high school
We felt so strange and shy
And many a problem vexed us,
Causing oft a long drawn sigh
But as the days rolled by us
And the regents came around
We were well prepared to answer for the
Orange and the Brown

Through the next three years of high school
In the rooms we love so well,
We gain a broader knowledge
Of the things that life will tell:
And we win athletic victories
O'er the teams of nearby towns
Still we work for dear Otego and the
Orange and the Brown

MR. SVOLOS

As principal of our school, directs a diversified program of activities and classes. Upon his capable shoulders rests the tremendous responsibility of managing our institution of learning. However, no question is too small or insignificant for his undivided attention and good advice. He will be remembered as a guiding hand throughout our Senior year.

DEDICATION

MRS. RUTH DAVIDSON

Mrs. Ruth Davidson

To express our appreciation for her two and one half years of guidance and assistance, we gratefully dedicate this year book of the Senior Class of 1952, to Mrs. Ruth Davidson.

IN APPRECIATION

MR. JOHN ELETTO

We, the class of 1952, wish to express our appreciation to Mr. John Eletto, our co-advisor, for his advice and cooperation during our Senior year at Otego Central School.

HISTORY OF CLASS

of 1952

On September 5, 1940, Mary Shultis, Marie Sheldon, Joan Hoyt, Audrey and Shirley Burnside, Joyce Nichols, Earlene Miller, Anna Jackson, James Downie, Gordon Hyatt, Robert Bump, Clark Andrews, and Carl O'Hara, became charter members of the class of '52 at Otego Central School.

Mrs. Hamilton was our first year teacher. A darling playhouse and a cubby hole of shelves called a "post office" completely won over our enthusiasm for this new thing called "school."

Our second year with Mrs. Haynes was equally as interesting. Under the guidance of our Art teacher, Miss Heger, we constructed a "Circus Parade" and "Peter Rabbits Garden". As a climax of this year we took part in the annual grade operetta and recited Mother Goose poems.

Maurice Stranagan came in our third year. Miss Jester introduced us to the Billy Whiskers books. Two plays presented by us this year were "Why the Chimes Rang" and Hansel and Gretel. Our talents were put to use making a large mural of which we were very proud. It pictured the song, "God Bless America."

Helen Foote, Rose Allen, and Carmilla Jones joined us in the fourth grade. Mrs. Hodges was our teacher. Humorous incidents occurred- for instance, the time Gordy spilled a pail of water on the floor.

In the fifth grade we performed scientific experiments under the watchful eye of Mrs. Tuttle. It isn't our fault that the school is still standing. Donald Lent and Malcom Ross joined our ranks this year.

In our sixth year with Mrs. Bennett as our teacher we held a notebook making contest on the subject of the United States. The winning group, the state of Texas was duly treated to a party by the others. Dorothy Sheldon, Joyce Utter, Lyle Norton and Lillian Fisk were added to our number now.

We tried to postpone our quaking fears about seventh grade initiation we had "flutterbys" in our stomachs. It resulted in fun for everyone and almost as much for us as for the seniors who initiated us. Money matters confronted us now but we started toward financial success when our duck pond at the school fair, awarded us with $10.00 Joan Haney, joined us here. Mr. Beemer and Mrs. Donald Allen were our advisors.

At the end of our eighth year we went on a trip to Albany, Schenectady and Howe Caverns. Most interesting were the W. G. Y. Studios at Schenectady and the "Winding Way" at Howe Caverns. We sponsored a movie, "Bar 20 Rides Again." Paul Hilfiger came this year and Mrs. Donald Allen remained our advisor.

Max Stevens joined us in the ninth grade. We had a movie, "Sinbad the Sailor."

At our first dance, on May 13th., we crowned our Queen, Joan Robinson, with her attendants, Audrey and Shirley Burnside. The crown bearer was Billy Groves and flowergirl was Sharon Crawford. Gay decorations of colored streamers were set off by a net filled with balloons, that later floated through the air mixed with the music of Linus Houcke. Several class dinners added to our round of activities. Mrs. Allen and Mr. McIntyre were our Advisors. By now we were the largest class in school with a total of 51.

Mr. Guy Mitchell and Mrs. Scannell advised us. Our Sophomore dance was held on April 28. Our "Rose Garden" decoration theme was admired by orchestra leader, Ernie Russ. He photographed our decorations and used them on his posters. Here Mary Lou Clark joined us.

Our Junior year brought Mrs. Davidson and Mr. Bensink to be our advisors. Bob Wyckoff was our only addition. In September we sold magazine subscriptions in a contest with the Seniors. Our first class JV-party was October 28th. at the school. Can we ever forget the Danish Mix, Mr. Bensink made for it? In November we selected for our class ring the "Golden Knight" design from the Bastian Company. The theme, "Winter Wonderland" was chosen for our first dance of the year held on December 8 with music by the Woodhull Boys. For decorations a revolving chandelier made of broken mirrors gave the effect of dancing snowflakes and brought many favorable comments. December 16 was the date of our hayride followed by a Christmas party at Marie Sheldons. Gift exchange and mistle-toe added to the fun. When the Seniors returned from their trip, the remaining banquets and the ice cream concession were granted us. April 26 and 27 we presented our Junior Play "Everything Happens to Us." Many happy memories remain from this great success which was enjoyed by a large number of people. Members of the cast included: Mary Lou Clark, Robert Bump, Gordon Hyatt, Shirley Burnside, Joyce Nichols, Robert Wyckoff, Mary Shultis, Lyle Norton, Clark Andrews, Joan Hoyt, and Dorothy Sheldon. After the first performance of the play, members of the cast went to Treadwell to a dance at the school and later to a party at Mrs. Davidson's home. May 18 was our second dance when the Woodhull Boys again provided the music. To climax this busy year we had a class picnic on June 21 at Fairy Springs on Otsego Lake. Swimming was enjoyed, as was the feast that followed. Later in the evening through the influence of Clark Andrews, we went for a nine mile boat ride on the largest cruiser on the lake, owned and operated by Clark's uncle. We had a wonderful time and such harmony you never heard.

Our "most-looked for" year began on September 5, 1951 with Mrs. Davidson and Mr. Eletto our advisors. Our first project was the annual magazine contest sale. In contesting with the Juniors, we won with Bob Wyckoff as our high salesman. October 19 was our first dance with music by the Woodhull Bays. Decorations were of the "Autumn" theme. Stationery sales began soon after the dance. The Senior play, "Just Ducky" a three act comedy was presented December 11. Our second dance on March 7 with music by Ernie Russ, followed the theme of St. Patricks Day. On April 11th. we are planning to start on that long waited-for trip to Washington D. C., Philadelphia, and New York City. After we return our next main event will be that solemn, but happy occasion--graduation.

CLASS WILL

We the Senior Class of nineteen hundred and fifty two, being of sound mind and body, do hereby declare this to be our last will and testament.

James Downie-- leaves his good looks to Gene De Marrias, he wants to share his interests in Cleveland to anyone with an airplane.

Joyce Nichols--wills her energetic personality to Sonja Thorsland, her Chemistry marks to Dean Hyatt and her love for convertibles to Dorothy Krause.

Carl O'Hara-- leaves his height to Ralph Thompkins, his charm to Delbert Wood and his pipe to Bill Haggerty.

Joan Haney-- wills her ice cream salesmanship to Betty Beach and her ability to do fancy work to Caroline Lent and her ability to sew to Miss Carpenter.

Malcom Ross-- leaves his art ability to Dennis O'Mara and his good marks to Charlie Anderson.

Earlene Miller-- wants to get rid of her pessimistic outlook so she leaves it to Patty Gillingham. Her great height she leaves to Marie Kruger.

Robert Bump-- leaves his car to Bob Tuttle, his hangovers to Bill Coote. Barbara and her pontiac go to Andy Short if he promises to take care of them.

Rose Allen-- wills her shyness to Lolo Mae Reed and her shorthand notebook to anyone who thinks he can read it.

Robert Wyckoff-- leaves his ability as a matador to Barry Greene, and his right to argue with the teachers to Edith Rothman.

Shirely Burnside-- wills her gift of gab to Janice Fuller, her girlish look goes to Elinor Lee Vroman.

Paul Hilfiger-- says he hasn't anything but Marie and Agnes to will away and that he can't part with either one.

Joan Hoyt-- wills her blush to Charlie Anderson; her position of head majorette to Lois Yager.

Max Stevens-- leaves his car to Bob Haney providing he takes good care of it (like he does)

Mary Shultis-- wills her figure to Guila Palmater and her tiny feet to Elaine Miller. She's keeping Johnny for herself.

Gordon Hyatt-- leaves his athletic ability to Bob Stevens, his great great height to Jim Locke and his right to be class comedian to Clyde Norton.

Anna Jackson-- wills her numerous hobbies to Elsie Steele to keep her home nights and her friendliness to Marjorie Downie.

Lyle Norton-- leaves his Student Council Presidency to Larry Trask and his wit to Alan Trowbridge.

Lillian Fiske-- wills her baby sitting jobs to Margaret Clark, her ability in shorthand goes to Roberta Kimball.

Maurice Stranagan-- leaves his mechanical ability to Charles Sherwood and his quiet misleading manner to Peter Holden.

Donald Lent-- leaves his flirting ability to Merritt Rose.

Marie Sheldon-- wills her voice to Jack Callahan and Paul to any girl who thinks she can get him.

Helen Foote-- wills her giggle to Andre Quimet and her right to go to Davenport dances to Lois Yager.

Clark Andrews-- leaves Barbara Haney to Francis Sabedra.

Mary Lou Clark-- leaves her seriousness to Jane Hilfiger.

Joyce Utter-- leaves Louie to Carolyn Foote and her right to stay out of school on Mondays to anyone who can get away with it.

Audrey Burnside-- wills her book on "How to get a man" to Ruth Boyd.

Dorothy Sheldon-- wills her clarinet to Violet Young and her job in the cafeteria to Mary Jane Hitchcock.

Carmilla Jones-- wills her right to work in the office to Larry Leahy.

Mr. Eletto-- leaves his little black book to Dawn Nelson to keep her dates straight.

Mrs. Davidson-- leaves her keycase to Mrs. Henderson, so she can keep track of the ice cream cabinet keys.

To the Juniors-- we leave the right to use the Homemaking room as a "Senior Lounge Room" next year.

To the Sophomores-- we leave our ability to make money.

To the Freshmen-- we leave the privilege of having as much fun as we did.
